Philemon 4-22

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints. <sup>6</sup>I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, <sup>9</sup>yet I appeal to you on the basis of love. I then, as Paul--an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus-- <sup>10</sup>I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, who became my son while I was in chains. <sup>11</sup>Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me. <sup>12</sup>I am sending him--who is my very heart--back to you. <sup>13</sup>I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do will be spontaneous and not forced. <sup>15</sup>Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back for good-- <sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear brother. He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back--not to mention that you owe me your very self. <sup>20</sup>I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. <sup>21</sup>Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask. <sup>22</sup>And one thing more: Prepare a guest room for me, because I hope to be restored to you in answer to your prayers.

* * * * *

Luke 14:25-33

<sup>25</sup>Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: <sup>26</sup>"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters--yes, even his own life--he cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup>"Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it? <sup>29</sup>For if he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule him, <sup>30</sup>saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.'

<sup>31</sup>"Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup>If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. <sup>33</sup>In the same way, any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple.

MORE IN 2004

In the dead of winter signs appeared all around the church with the word MORE written on it. Some are still up. The preacher did it. He wanted to challenge each person at Jenkins church to do more for the kingdom of God in 2004. That was an easy one since 4 rhymed with more.

What more have you done? Many of you did a lot MORE on helping pay off the building. One family gave a lot MORE to the electronic equipment at the church: New computers and a projector for the sanctuary, plus many hours spent installing and fine-tuning.

Others have given MORE time and energy to the various activities of the church: Vacation Bible School, Choir, Work at Crystal Springs Camp, etc. Others have done MORE for Sunday School, youth ministry and outreach ministries.

How much MORE is enough? You have to decide that. How much MORE can you do or give??? Or should you do or give? Or are you doing or giving enough?

God probably has some answers for you. Talk to Him about it.

FULL HOUSE SUNDAY

An Opportunity To Do More

Sunday, September 12 is FULL HOUSE SUNDAY at Jenkins church. Will you work to make it so? Are you already working and praying? Just plan to be present and invite as many as you can, but the most important part that you can play is to be present yourself. And we want to always ask God's blessing on our effort.

We will have a service at 8:00 a.m. and another at 10:15.

A FULL HOUSE will honor God. Yes, it will bring glory to Him. You might want to turn to Luke 14 to read a parable about filling God's house. He is pleased when His people gather to sing praises to Him, to offer prayers to Him, to express their faith in Him, and to listen to His word read and expounded upon and acted upon. And it will be a great witness to the community about the part of His church called Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian.

Be sure to be a part of FULL HOUSE SUNDAY at Jenkins Church on September 12, 2004.

Peace and Blessings,
Larry Guin

Jenkins MDO

Jenkins Church Mothers Day Out begins its 17th year of ministry to the community on September 7. We are open two days a week and serve families with children ages 2-5.

Melanie Staudt, who has been the director of this program since its inception in 1988, will continue in her position, but is planning a career change beginning next fall. The Mothers Day Out committee is searching for a director for the 2005-2006 school year, with the possibility of transitional training during this school year. If you are interested, or would like to recommend someone for this position, applications are available from Julie Bomar or Melanie Staudt.

JENKINS CHURCH AND GOD'S WILL

What will we as a church be involved in over the next few months? Or years??? How do we determine what we should be doing?

"Touch the Future" is a program of the denomination that helps us discern God's will for the church through bible study and praying to God for His guidance and listening when He gives that requested guidance.

Normally a church takes on a project for a variety of reasons. Sometimes we see a need and set out to meet that need. Sometimes an individual or group feels that we need to be involved in a particular project. Sometimes the preacher has something he wants the church to do. This list could go on and on.

And then there are some things that a church does just because it is a church and these things a church must do. To not do these things and that organization would not be a church. One of these is meet for worshipping God. Another is Sunday School, although not all churches have Sunday School. Others are preaching and singing.

I know that it is easy for some in a busy church like Jenkins to feel we are doing all we can or doing so much, why bring up anything else. But we need to evaluate what we are doing and ask ourselves, "Are we doing what God wants us to do?"

There may be ministries or programs that He wants us to be involved in that we are not and there may be some things that we may not need to be involved in any longer. The need has passed and we keep on trying to keep it going when there is no need. I do know that we are commissioned to make new disciples. We could be more involved in that than we are.

All of this to say: let us begin to look at what God says to us in his word about what his church should be doing. I have been drawn to the words of Jesus. A red-letter edition of the scriptures would help us see these easily. Join me in examining these words. But let us read them in the context of where they were spoken.

I have recently re-read the letters of God's faithful servants, and plan to do it again this fall... just to be reminded of what the church needs to be involved in. Will you join me in this endeavor? And I am and trying to remember to pray more in the spirit of seeking God's will rather than always asking God to help us do what I think.

In late fall and or early winter, we are thinking about getting a group or the whole church together for a series of meetings where we seek to learn God's will for us and seek ways to do what we learn. I hope that you will be interested.

I don't want to be busy with busy work. I want to be busy with God's work.

Larry Guin
