1Corinthians 12

1Now about spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2You know that when you were pagans, somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols. 3Therefore I tell you that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

4There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. 6There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men. 7Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. 8To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, 9to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, 10to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. 11All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines. 12The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. 13For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.

14Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. 15If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 16And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 17If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? 18But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. 19If they were all one part, where would the body be? 20As it is, there are many parts, but one body. 21The eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you!” And the head cannot say to the feet, “I don’t need you!” 22On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, 24while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honor to the parts that lacked it, 25so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. 26If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

27Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. 28And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing, those able to help others, those with gifts of administration, and those speaking in different kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 30Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? 31But eagerly desire the greater gifts.

And now I will show you the most excellent way.

New Building Progress

Many of you read last Sunday that the correct amount of the bid on the new building is $380,892.00. We do apologize for this mistake but the session believed that this was still a good price. The contractor will attempt to save as much as possible and pass the savings on to us. The plans are presently with the state fire marshal waiting for his approval. Keep praying, keep giving and keep being excited!

This is God's House we are building for His glory. Continue to seek His guidance for the project through your prayers.

Touch the Future

Touch the Future is a method to help a congregation in discerning God's will for that congregation.

We will spend the six Wednesday nights of Lent 2005 working through the process, which consists of group bible study, prayer and dreaming.

Since February 9th, a number of people have been engaged in a discerning process each Wednesday evening. Many favorable comments have been shared as have many ideas, dreams and visions.

The small group discussions have resulted in much interaction.

Let's keep studying God's word and praying for him to lead us into knowing His will for Jenkins Church.

Week 4 - March 2nd - Bible Study on 1 Corinthians 7:17-31

Week 5 - March 9th - Bible Study on 1 Corinthians 12

GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING

The General Assembly of the C P Church will meet this year at the Marriott Convention Center in Cool Springs on June 27th – July 1, 2005. On Monday, June 27th it is customary to have a reception for the out-going moderator and welcome the new moderator for the year. This reception will be held at our church and I've volunteered to plan this event. Finger foods, punch, etc., like a wedding reception which I have done for about 200 people; but this event will involve about 400-500 people. All the expenses are paid by the General Assembly. We have the option of finding a caterer or doing it ourselves.

The only way I can be responsible for this is with the help of the entire congregation. If you can contribute any of the things listed below, please let me know as soon as possible so I feel we as a congregation can not do this; I can contact a caterer soon because this date is "wedding season". Large tablecloths, recipes for finger foods (appetizers), any size silver trays or bowls, pretty glass trays or bowls, punch bowls or help preparing food. A lot of food will be purchased from Sam's, but some homemade foods will be nice. Many things I make can be frozen ahead of time. Elizabeth and Carole are going to be responsible for decorating the gym for the reception. Thanks, Nancy Suddarth @ sn4969@juno.com or 833-6429.

EASTER EGG HUNT

The annual Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church Easter Egg Hunt is planned for Saturday, March 12th @ 10:00 a.m. at the church. In the event of rain, we will reschedule for the following Saturday. We need donations of plastic eggs and candy to fill them. No chocolate please because it melts. A donation box is located in the hallway across from the church office. Plan to come and bring your friends and have some fun! Also, after the hunt, why not stop at the consignment shop and do some shopping!

JENKINS ANNUAL B-B-Q 25 YEARS!!! 25 YEARS!!! 25 YEARS!!!

That's right. Saturday, April 23rd from 3 – 7 p.m. will be Jenkins Church 25th Annual Barbeque and Silent Auction. So mark your calendars and get ready...In addition to delicious on site cooked barbeque, we will have another great silent auction, music and this year a 'KIDSZONE'.

This is one of our main fundraisers for our building fund. Proceeds from KIDSZONE will go to our Youth's Mission Trip to Denton, Tx. We look forward to seeing y'all here on April 23rd.

"It's Bar-B-Q Time" and in order to keep costs down, profits up and one person from having a nervous breakdown, we are seeking volunteers and donations of all sorts. If you have items or need suggestions for Silent Auction please see Sherry Windrow or Jackie Fuqua.

If you have any ideas or would like to be part of this church event, please contact Steve @ 776-2985 or Mary Beth @ 791-7128.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONY

On Sunday, February 13th at 10:00 a.m. we had our formal ground breaking ceremony for the new building. This was an exciting time for us all!
