CALL TO WORSHIP

(We are here to give glory and honor and praise to God our heavenly Father and Jesus our Savior through song, prayer, giving, speaking, hearing and responding.)

Leader: All the earth bows down to you; they sing praise to you, they sing praise to your name."

People: Come and see what God has done, how awesome his works in man's behalf!

Leader: He has preserved our lives and kept our feet from slipping.

People: Come and listen, all you who fear God; let me tell you what he has done for me.

Leader: Praise be to God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld his love from me!

Luke 24:13-35 NIV

13Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; 16but they were kept from recognizing him.

17He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. 18One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

19"What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. 20The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; 21but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning 23but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

25He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

28As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther. 29But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

30When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 32They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

33They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." 35Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Acts 1:3-10

3After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. 4On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. 5For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

6So when they met together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

7He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. 8But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

9After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. 10They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them.

Sunday, May 29, 9:00 am Fellowship Breakfast / Promotion Sunday -

AT our fifth Sunday fellowship breakfast during the Sunday School hour, we will introduce teachers, make promotions for the new Sunday School year which begins June 5th and acknowledge 2005 graduates. All adults and children are invited to join together for a great breakfast; catch up with old friends and support our Sunday School program.

To help us honor our graduates and acknowledge them on the 29th, please let the church office know the names of graduates & their schools and/or programs. We do not want to leave anyone out. To date, we have the names of Paul Tucker, Michael Hofer, Richey Green, Charles Medlen Jr., Seth Wynn Cody Stubblefield and Ryan Lancaster from High school and from Universities - Jason D. Cobb & Kate Mosley.

Special Congratulations to Mrs. Melanie Staudt who graduated from Trevecca Nazarene University on May 7 with a Masters in teaching.

Saturday, June 4, 8 am – 2 pm: MISSIONS MARKETPLACE OUTREACH

Funds raised from this event will be used to help local children in need and support the Outreach Committee's efforts this year to assist children suffering from hunger, sickness, etc. It's the committee's desire to be an example to the community by showing that our church family cares about others and that we are busy doing the Lord's work by helping the least among us who are unable to help themselves.

Here's How You Can Help: (1) Donate items for the Missions Booth. The church keeps all monies from the sale of these goods. There's a box marked in the gym for donations. (2) Do a booth with proceeds going to the church. (3) Donate any amount of money you choose. All donors will be recognized at the event, and we will give you a receipt for tax purposes. (4) Rent your own booth space: Inside 8 x 8 ft. spaces are $25.00 with one table provided and outside 12 x 12 ft. spaces are $35.00--you provide table if needed. Please place all booth or donation checks in the Haywood mailbox. If you have ideas or would like to help with this effort in any way, please see Sonya H. or Rebecca Fielder. Thank You!

Thursday, May 19: Red Cross Blood Drive

At the Nolensville United Methodist Church on from 2:00 pm to 7:00 pm.

Today is the celebration of the Ascension of Jesus. He came from heaven to earth that first Christmas. He carried out His saving mission by His suffering and death upon the Cross on Good Friday. He rose victoriously from the dead on Easter Sunday and appeared alive to His disciples and to others for forty days. It was not God's intention for His Son and our Savior to continue indefinitely on this planet earth. The Father's plan was for Jesus to return bodily to heaven and sit at His right hand in His rightful place again. There Jesus would be able to be with all His followers everywhere at once with His invisible presence and be able to intercede for us before the throne of God. We celebrate the Ascension because by it Jesus could keep His promise to us. He said just prior to His Ascension, "Lo, I am with you always, even to the close of the age. After His ascension Jesus fulfilled His promise to send us His Holy Spirit. We will Celebrate Pentecost as a Christian community next Sunday, May 15th because what the Holy Spirit began that first Pentecost, He still continues to do among us yet today.
(PS Wear RED Next Sunday!!!!)

RESPONSIVE READING: --Proverbs 31:10-31

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies.

Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value.

She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.

She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.

She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.

She gets up while it is still dark; she provides food for her family and portions for her servant girls.

She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.

She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks.

She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.

In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.

She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.

When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.

She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple.

Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land.

She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes.

She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.
