Matthew 20:1-16 NIV

1"For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard. 2He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

3"About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. 4He told them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' 5So they went.

"He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. 6About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?' 7" 'Because no one has hired us,' they answered.

"He said to them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard.'

8"When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.'

9"The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. 10So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. 11When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. 12'These men who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.'

13"But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn't you agree to work for a denarius? 14Take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same as I gave you. 15Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?'

16"So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Helping those in need from “hurricane” disaster:

As the recovery efforts continue along the Gulf Coast, all of us watching from the side lines want to do something to reach out to those affected by the storm, the flooding and its aftermath. Most of the organizations involved in the relief efforts say that financial support is the best thing anyone can offer at this time. Jenkins has been and will continue to accept your financial gifts. You may make a contribution for Katrina victims by making your check to Jenkins and marked for Board of Missions “Hurricane Relief”.

HURRICANE KATRINA RELIEF DRIVE: The Outreach committee is continuing to collect items to assist hurricane survivors. Bottled water, baby food, formula, diapers, wipes, first aid supplies, cleaning supplies, hand tools, paper products, hygiene items or ready to eat non-perishable food. If you prefer to write a check we will purchase items for the victims with your donation. Please make checks out to Jenkins Church and note on it OUTREACH PROJECT. Questions? See or call Sonya Haywood. Thanks to those who have already donated!

That Wonderful Grace of God

Matthew 20:1-16

Introduction:

Another parable about the Kingdom of Heaven. It appears that it is important to Jesus that we know about the Kingdom.

There are numerous lessons in this parable.

1. A lesson about vineyard workers.
These workers illustrate workers in God's kingdom.
2. A lesson about people.
3. A lesson about God. (or more than one lesson)
 - A.
 - B.
 - C.
 - D.
