Psalm 38:18 NIV

18 I confess my iniquity; I am troubled by my sin.

THE PEOPLE CONFESSING in unison – Almighty and merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to the world in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O merciful God, for His sake, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life to the glory of your name.

Luke 15:11-24 NIV

¹¹To illustrate the point further, Jesus told them this story: "A man had two sons. ¹²The younger son told his father, 'I want my share of your estate now, instead of waiting until you die.' So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons. ¹³A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and took a trip to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money on wild living. ¹⁴About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. ¹⁵He persuaded a local farmer to hire him to feed his pigs. ¹⁶The boy became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything. ¹⁷When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, 'At home even the hired men have food enough to spare, and here I am, dying of hunger! ¹⁸I will go home to my father and say, "Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, ¹⁹and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired man."'

²⁰So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long distance away, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him.

²¹His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. ²²But his father said to the servants, 'Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger, and sandals for his feet. ²³And kill the calf we have been fattening in the pen. We must celebrate with a feast, ²⁴for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.' So the party began.

O, How He Loves You and Me

Luke 15:11-24

Introduction: Every child that runs away from home needs to know that he/she can go back home.

That is how it is with God's love.

That is what this parable is about

A warm welcome awaiting us when we are ready to go back home

Yellow ribbons

A Rebellious boy and a loving Father

Fallen mankind and a forgiving God

Look at the parable:

When the son decided to return home

He was received with great love and affection from the father

He offered himself in penitent submission
 The father made great provisions for his son.
 1. From rags to great adornment
 2. From hunger to a feast
 And there was great rejoicing

Maybe this parable speaks to you and your situation
 Or to someone you know.....

If you are the run a way, isn't it time for you to return home?
 If you have run from God, isn't it time to return to him?
 Maybe you are in the position of the father. If so, this parable tells you what to do.
