We celebrate Pentecost as a Christian community because what the Holy Spirit began that first Pentecost, He still continues to do among us yet today. He still works in the hearts of many by means of the proclamation of the Gospel to bring about conversion and faith in Jesus Christ. He still gives us gifts which we can use to build up the Church. He still inspires us by the Word of God and by His indwelling Spirit to live a Christian life. The Holy Spirit still leads and guides us amidst the problems and struggles of this life. He keeps us confident that this same Jesus who ascended so many year ago will come again and one day take us to Himself in heaven....

COMMUNION SUNDAY:

June 11, both worship services.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS: at the call of Chair

SESSION MEETING

June 11th, @ 6:00 p.m.

From the Pastor's keyboard:

Just a few thoughts:

Enjoy a good conspiracy theory? Many people do!

A few weeks ago semi-retired fellow minister Rev. Bert Owen, was remembering back when he was a full time pastor and challenged his people to "Form a Conspiracy" of things that are positive and good and helpful. I believe this challenge has great merit for any congregation. So I am adapting his thoughts to our situation and challenging you to help "form a conspiracy" here at Jenkins Church. Rev. Owen printed a paragraph in the bulletin each Sunday. We may do that also.

"Let's form a conspiracy today. Let's all CONSPIRE together to pray for those who lead the worship. Pray for the Pastor that he may be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Pray for the choir and music leaders that God may speak through their talents. Pray for those who worship with you in this place, that all may be filled with the wonder of God's love and grace. Especially pray for those present who may be troubled or who need to come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

As we conspire together today let us pray for God to be glorified in our worship and that as we leave this place we will all be able to say, it has been good to have been in the house of the Lord."

Could we have a conspiracy of prayer for renewal and spiritual revival? I sure would like to be a part of such a conspiracy". .

Missions EDUCATION Day June 4

What is Jenkins Church doing for MISSIONS? What are we doing for others? You can find out about some of the things we have done and/or are doing during the worship services on June 4. We will also have displays set up promoting some of the mission work of the folks at Jenkins church. Speakers representing four areas of missions work will speak at both services. Following the service, a soup, salad, and sandwich luncheon will be held by the youth to help raise money for their mission trip to Choctaw Presbytery in July. There is no charge for lunch, but donations will be accepted.

SUPPORT FOR Yatsky Family

We need to plan now for financial support for Seveta, Yuraslav and Amelia for September 2006 thru August 2007. A letter is being prepared by the session clerk and pastor explaining the need for support for the Yatskyfamily. Continue to seek God's guidance in how you should assist.

FAITHFULNESS TO THE CHURCH

Your faithfulness to the kingdom work is revealed in the figures showing the attendance and offerings. Keep up the good work. And if you are not included in the figures, you may know that there is a place for you at Jenkins Church and that you are wanted; both by God and by the rest of us who have been there.

COMMUNION DAY CHANGED

Due to the extra time needed for and to allow plenty of time for participants in the mission work to make their presentations, we will move the celebration of holy Communion to the Second Sunday, June 11th.

When Visitors are present.

Will you help out???? One of the loneliest places I have been is in a church service as a visitor where I am not known and be sitting by myself, and no one acknowledges my presence.

I bring this up because I often see visitors sitting by themselves in our sanctuary.

A few months ago I adapted an article to our situation here at Jenkins that had been written by a fellow minister to his congregation. Did you read it?

I hoped that that article would make us sensitive to visitors and would motivate us to look over the congregation and if we saw someone sitting by himself or herself, to go and sit by them.

That article also gave some suggestions about greeting people we do not recognize before and after the service.

Will you help out in this situation? Will you see that no one sits by themselves, and especially that no visitor sits by himself or herself.

And will you greet every person that you do not know. You can just say, "Hi, I am (and give your name)". That will mean a great deal to visitors and even longtime attendees and members.

THE U IN JESUS

Before U were thought of or time had begun,
God stuck U in the name of His Son.

And each time U pray, you'll see it's true,
You can't spell out JesUs and not include U.

You're a pretty big part of His wonderful name,
For U, He was born; that's why He came.

And His great love for U is the reason He died.
It even takes U to spell crUcified.

Isn't it thrilling and splendidly grand
He rose from the dead, with U in His plan?

The stones split away, the gold trUmpet blew,
and this word resUrrection is spelled with a U.

When JesUs left earth at His upward ascension,
He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.

"Go into the world and tell them it's true
That I love them all - Just like I love U."

So many great people are spelled with a U,
Don't they have a right to know JesUs too?

It all depends now on what U will do,
He'd like them to know,
But it all starts with U.

Amy Bryan is still working on a cookbook project. She welcomes others in the church and community to contribute recipes as they wish. Emailing them to her would be a very easy way to do this: graciejomama@netzero.com. She hopes to have them ready in the fall for the bazaar and for holiday gift giving at a reasonable price. "It will be in honor of Gracie, and will include many recipes from her great-grandmothers, great Aunt Linda as well as "Ma Jo", "Nanna" and her aunts Joy and Amy."
