Ephesians 4:1-16 NIV

¹As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. ²Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. ³Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

⁷But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.

⁸This is why it says:

"When he ascended on high, he led captives in his train and gave gifts to men." ⁹(What does "he ascended" mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? ¹⁰He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) ¹¹It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, ¹²to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

¹⁴Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Remember those who are homebound or in Nursing Homes Remember in prayer Our Nation, Our Leaders, and Our Loved One.

Pray for our troops as they serve around the world- that God will safeguard them and provide for their needs, whether physical, spiritual or emotional. Pray for those who lead the worship and for the Pastor that he may be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Pray for the choir and music leaders that God may speak through their talents. Pray for those who worship in this place, that all may be filled with the wonder of God's love and grace. Especially pray for those present who may be troubled or who need to come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Our Daily Bread Devotionals for September, October, November 2006 are now available.

Though no one can go back and make a brand new start, everyone can start from now and make a brand new ending.

Living for Him

Ephesians 4:1-16

Introduction: William Barclay points out that in the first 3 chapters of Ephesians, the Apostle Paul has dealt with the great and eternal truths of the Christian Faith and with the function of the Church in the plan and design of God. Now he begins to sketch what each member of the church must be if the church is to carry out her part in the plan and purpose of God.

v. 1-3 Christian virtues:

humility
meekness longsuffering love peace

v. 4 -6 The basis of unity

One body, one Spirit, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God

V.11-13 Gifts – functions in the church

Apostles
Prophets
Evangelists
Pastors and Teachers
Gifts Jesus gives from God
Build up the body (church)

v. 14-16 Protection from detractors.

The Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13 KJV)

9 After this manner therefore pray ye:

“Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.”

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hades; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

A Call to Confession - from Romans 3:23

23for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God,

A Prayer of Confession- You have set us apart, O God, to be your people. Help us to take up our roles as your servants with whole hearted commitment. Grant that we may learn how to live lives of simple compassion like the good Samaritan. Teach us what it means to walk in your ways, and to live lives worthy of the price Jesus paid in reconciling creation. We are humbled when we recall how the Lord of the universe became flesh and lived among us so that we might share in the inheritance of the saints in light. Forgive and grant us strength, endurance, patience and joy as we learn to live as your people. Amen.

An Assurance of Forgiveness – The sacrifice of Jesus Christ was the perfect offering, given to take away sin. God forgives and forgets the wrong we have done and grants new opportunities for doing good. Join all of creation praising God without ceasing.
