CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession - from Romans 3:23
... all have sinned and come short of the glory of God,

Prayer of Confession- You have set us apart, O God, to be your people. Help us to take up our roles as your servants with whole hearted commitment. Grant that we may learn how to live lives of simple compassion like the good Samaritan. Teach us what it means to walk in your ways, and to live lives worthy of the price Jesus paid in reconciling creation. We are humbled when we recall how the Lord of the universe became flesh and lived among us so that we might share in the inheritance of the saints in light. Forgive and grant us strength, endurance, patience and joy as we learn to live as your people. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness – The sacrifice of Jesus Christ was the perfect offering, given to take away sin. God forgives and forgets the wrong we have done and grants new opportunities for doing good. Join all of creation praising God without ceasing.

1 Corinthians 11:17-29 NIV - 17In the following directives I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good. 18In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it. 19No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval. 20When you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat, 21for as you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anybody else. One remains hungry, another gets drunk. 22Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? Certainly not!

23For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, 24and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." 25In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." 26For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

27Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. 28A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. 29For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself.

Just a few thoughts:

THANKS

Thank you for receiving my challenging sermon on welcoming visitors. You responded in such a positive manner.

Welcoming visitors is a must for a church that is interested in ministering to people.

People visit out of need. One of the needs of many people is to grow closer to God. God's people can help them do that.

Keep on speaking to every person that you do not know. Get to know them and let them get to know you.

Missions & Evangelism

The Nature of... (taken from various Max Lacado excerpts)

In a land where we have more malls than high schools, more debt than credit, more clothes to wear than we can wear, could Christ be saying:

"Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions" (Luke 12:15)? Raging hurricanes and broken levees; tornadoes, forest fires, earthquakes . . . have a way of prying our fingers off the stuff we love. What was once most precious now means little; what we once ignored is now of eternal significance. Christ tells us: stuff doesn't matter; people do.

We were born with a me-first mentality. You don't have to teach your kids to argue. They don't have to be trained to demand their way. You don't have to show them how to stomp their feet and pout, it is their nature. Indeed it is all of our nature to do so. "All of us have strayed like sheep. We have left God's paths to follow our own" (Isaiah 53:6).

God's chosen word for our fallen condition has three letters s-l-n. Sin celebrates the letter in the middle. "I. Left to our own devices, We lead a godless, out of control life of "...doing what we felt like doing, when we felt like doing it" (Ephesians 2:3 MSG).

You don't have to go to New Orleans, California, Guatemala to see chaos. Because of sin, the husband ignores his wife, grown men seduce the young. The young proposition the old. When you do what you want and I do what I want, humanity and civility implodes.

And when the "Katrina's" of life blown in, our true nature is revealed and our deepest need is unveiled: we need, not a new system, but a new nature. We need to be changed from the inside out.

Someone has to go in to clean up "the mess" in all areas of life. That is what God offers to do with us. He comes into sin-flooded lives and washes away the old. Paul reflected on his conversion and he wrote: "He gave us a good bath, and we came out of it new people, washed inside and out by the Holy Spirit" (Titus 3:5). Our sins stand no chance against the fire hoses of God's grace.

But he does more than cleanse us; he rebuilds us. In the form of his Holy Spirit, God moves in and starts a complete renovation project. "God can do anything, you know--far more than you could ever imagine or guess or request in your wildest dreams! He does it not by pushing us around but by working within us, His Spirit deeply and gently within us." (Ephesians 3:20 MSG).

What we can only dream of, God has done with soul after soul, and he will do so with you, if you let him. Trust in Him while you still can.

Bible Study -Bible study will resume Tuesday, September 12th at 10:00 am. We will meet downstairs in the new Sunday School building and make some decisions on meeting day and subject. All people of the church and community are invited to join us.
