Free us for joyful obedience; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

John 15:9-17 NIV

⁹"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. ¹⁰If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love. ¹¹I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. ¹²My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command. ¹⁵I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. ¹⁷This is my command: Love each other.

John 13:34-35 NIV

³⁴"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

Leviticus 19:18 NIV

¹⁸ " 'Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

A Day of Remembrance

On December 18, 2001, Congress approved a joint resolution designating September 11 of each year as "Patriot Day". It's a day to remember the more than 3,000 innocent lives lost on that September morning in 2001.

In his 2003 proclamation, President Bush said, "On that day, and in its aftermath, we saw the greatness of America in the bravery of victims; in the heroism of first responders who laid down their lives to save others; in the compassion of people who stepped forward to help those they had never met and in the generosity of millions of Americans who enriched our country with acts of service and kindness.

Keep them all in your prayers this Patriot Day.

Sermon Notes Jenkins C P Church September 10, 2006
Nolensville, TN

Obedying God: Loving One Another
Scripture: John 15:9-17, 13:34-35; Leviticus 19:18

Introduction: There are some things in life which we have no control over: _____, _____, _____, etc.

Other things we have control of. One of these is being obedient to God by doing what he says.

One subject that he calls to our attention often is LOVE for Himself and for our fellow creatures.
Loving God and each other must be important to God
Not loving must have been a problem in the early church ...

Love is a choice.
Love begins with God,
and continues with us.

If we cannot love _____ we can let God love them through us.

If the group that you are in, be it church, club, community, workplace, etc. is not as loving as it once was, needs to be, should be, you wish was, you can be the one that makes it so.

You start. Don't wait for somebody else.
It only takes a spark to get a fire going.

Invitation: To respond to God's love sent to us in Jesus Christ.
To commit yourself to being a person who spreads God's love.

Our Prayer List / We leave names on for four weeks at a time. If a name has been removed and you wish to add them back on, please feel free to contact the office and/or list names(s) on cards in pews and place in offering plate as originally done.

Remember those who are homebound or in Nursing Homes
Remember in prayer Our Nation, Our Leaders, and Our Loved One.

Pray for our troops as they serve around the world- that God will safeguard them and provide for their needs, whether physical, spiritual or emotional. Pray for those who lead the worship and for the Pastor that he may be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Pray for the choir and music leaders that God may speak through their talents. Pray for those who worship in this place, that all may be filled with the wonder of God's love and grace. Especially pray for those present who may be troubled or who need to come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

"What does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God." --The Bible, Micah 6:8 (NIV)
