Prayer of Confession: (in unison) Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from you ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against you holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But you, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; according to your promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name.

(Continue in silent prayer). Amen

John 12:12-19 (NIV)

12The next day the great crowd that had come for the Feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. 13They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna! "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the King of Israel!" 14Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written, 15"Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."16At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realize that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him. 17Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word. 18Many people, because they had heard that He had given this miraculous sign, went out to meet him. 19So the Pharisees said to one another, "See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!"

Luke 23:33; 44-49 (NIV)

33When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified Him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on His left. 44It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, 45for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. 46Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When He had said this, He breathed His last. 47The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, "Surely this was a righteous man." 48When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away. 49But all those who knew Him, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Palms or Passion

John 12:12-19; Luke 23:33, 44-49

Purpose: To review the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem and the events of the week that followed with the hope that we will become better disciples of Jesus or become a disciple of Him.

The week began with .....
Before the week was over the tide had turned .....
Religious leaders of the day wanted ....
By Thursday

Jesus met with the disciples to celebrate the Passover ..
There He instituted the Lord's Supper.
When they dispersed they went .....
He (Jesus) went off by himself ...

Betrayal, arrest, disciples running, trial, denial, sentence.

Another parade.
Nailed to the cross, 7 words, death. A sad day. Had evil won?

It was all part of God's plan.

Jesus laid down His life for His friends, you and me.

From the Pastor:

Easter.

Easter. The high point of the Christian Year. More than that, it is the high point of history. God raised Jesus up from death and the grave. He overcame death. He defeated Satan. The price for sin was paid. My sin and your sin. It was paid in full. That happened on Friday when they nailed Jesus to a cross and He died there. By His action there He made it possible for all who will trust Him as their Savior and make Him Lord of their life to experience forgiveness and receive the gift of eternal life with him.

Because Jesus was raised, we too are promised a resurrection. He is the firstfruits of them that sleep in Jesus. The Apostle Paul wrote about this in I Cor. 15:20 and following where it is recorded, "... Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. 22For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. 23But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.

Thanks be to God!!! Life on this earth is not all that there is to our existence.

Thank you Lord for saving my soul. Thank you Lord for making me whole. Thank you Lord for giving to me, Thy great salvation so rich and free.

And THANK YOU, Lord, for the promise of an eternity in heaven in your very near presence.

EASTER WORSHIP WELCOMING TEAM (the entire congregation)

Attendance at worship on Easter Sunday is normally the high attendance day of the year. We ask our regular members and regular attendees to be aware of needs our guest will have for assistance in finding parking, finding the rest rooms, finding the sanctuary, and the coffee/refreshment table. Need I remind anyone that every guest will need a happy smile and a warm greeting. This may be the only opportunity that we will have to introduce some person to Jesus. Don't let it slip by us without taking advantage of it.

Who will work the parking lot? Just station yourself there and do it.

Who will stand at the entrance doors? Or the gymnasium entrance, etc.?

FINANCES

Charlie Thomas, Church Treasurer has written an article about finances. He said it well. Thank you, Charlie.

FINANCES

I would like to take this occasion to inform you of our Church's financial position. Thanks to you, we are in fair shape, at the moment.

However, our physical structure is much larger than it was two years ago. Therefore the gas, electric, and phone service costs have become a larger part of the budget. Increased activities have caused some departments to spend more than anticipated.

That budget was $248,876 in 2006 and was modestly increased by $5,155 in 2007 to $254,031. We have not increased salaries for a couple of years and have tried to lower costs in other areas. Our insurance program is one area in which we changed providers in an effort to increase coverage and still save money. Nevertheless, we are only in a breakeven position in our monthly cash flow. We have not had the surplus available to be able to build up any kind of rainy day fund. Some months, we are actually spending slightly more than we take in.

Therefore, I ask you to consider your giving and what part you might be able to play in helping our Church in easing this difficulty.

Thank you.
Charlie Thomas

Evangelism & Missions –

God has a plan and it is found in His Son.

Why have we rejected God's plan? Jesus said the problem is with us. "Out of the heart...proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness" (Mark 7-21-22)

"Well, I'm just a sinner saved by grace," we say as though that somehow excuses and explains away our spastic, flip-floppy behavior-almost holy one moment, completely unholy the next.

As though Christ's coming and dying did nothing more than secure for us a place in heaven.

As though spiritual mediocrity is the best we can hope for here on earth. As though God created us to be captives even though everything in the Bible says we've already been set free.

Do we live in "borderland" as Pastor and author Mark Buchanan describes?....."People on borderland have grown comfortable with boredom. They have settled for a God "on call", a God available for crises and fiascos, who does a bit of juggling with weather patterns and parking stalls but who otherwise remains unobtrusive as a chambermaid, tidying things up while you're at brunch, leaving a crisp sash of tissue around the lid of the toilet bowl to let you know all is in order. The problem, obviously, is that this god—so kind, so shy, so tame—has nothing whatsoever to do with the God of the Bible. This god resembles not even remotely the GOD whose Spirit broods and dances, the GOD who topples entire empires, sometimes overnight, the GOD who reveals himself in the Christ who looks big men in the eye and says, "Follow me," and then walks away, not waiting for a reply."

This is a God bold enough to call us away from borderland and kind enough to provide a way out. For we have not been left helpless.
That is why Christ came.

By His death He provided the way for us to be reconciled to God.
Everyone who opens up to Him can have a quality of life that is meaningful, abundant, and fulfilling. He is the only one who can give us life before death as well as life hereafter,

"It is finished." The price for our redemption has been paid.
