CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: But all sinners will be destroyed; the future of the wicked will be cut off. (Ps. 37:38)

Prayer of Confession: Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. (Continue in silent prayer) Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness: But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. Ephesians 2:4-5 (NIV)

1Corinthians 11: 23-29: 23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, 24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." 25 In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." 26 For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. 28 A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. 29 For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself.

From the preacher

REACH OUT, REACH OUT, AND REACH OUT.

What are we doing with the love of God sent to us through His Son, Jesus, who is the Christ (Savior)?

More specifically, what are you doing with God's love? Rejoicing in it? Bathing in it? Enjoying it? Resting in it? Sharing it?

All five of the above are good, but consider this – you call and a challenge to be more actively involved in the last one --- sharing the love of God which He revealed in Jesus.

Throughout the bible there is the admonition or call or urging for God's people to reach out and share His love with others.

What Sacrifice will you make to make sharing Jesus a reality in our community?

What energy will you spend on it? What preparation will you make?

The opportunities are many for us to tell about Jesus. Of the many people you meet today or in the coming week, many of them will not know JESUS as their Savior. Many of them do not have the assurance that heaven is their eternal home. Some of them may not know anything about Jesus, having never heard of Him.

There are so many opportunities to share Jesus. Maybe you could equip yourself to become a person to person evangelist. Have you heard about Evangelism Explosion or Campus Crusade for Christ? These are good resources for equipping people to share the gospel of Jesus person to person.

Maybe you could merely tell your story or how Jesus saved you. That may be the best witness you could give.

Maybe you could simply invite a neighbor or acquaintance or relative or friend to church with you where they could hear the gospel (good news) of Jesus preached.

Reach out, reach out, and reach out. And PRAY. And trust God to give the increase!!!

JENKINS FAMILY SPOTLIGHT

The Linder's: Carl, Nancy and Lauren

The Linder family moved to Nolensville a year ago from New England, and we welcome them to the community and to Jenkins church. They attend the 10:15am service and their daughter Lauren has joined the youth group. Carl and Nancy were both raised in the Presbyterian Church and were looking for a warm community church. Being new to Tennessee they enjoy getting in the car and exploring new areas of our state. Back home on the coast of New Hampshire and Maine, they enjoyed sitting by the rocky coastline and watching the lobster boats pulling up their traps. We don't have lobster traps in Tennessee, but we have our share of trout and bass fishing. Maybe we can introduce them to this favorite Tennessee pastime. They tell us that they have enjoyed their first year living in Nolensville and meeting all the wonderful people of the community. We welcome you Linder family.

Make it a point if you haven't already to introduce yourself to the Linder family and let them know how glad we are they are a part of Jenkins Church.

Sleigh Bells Bazaar & Bar-B-Que Saturday, November 3rd from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm

You better not pout, you better not cry, you better watch out, I'm telling you why..... Jenkins is having their annual Bazaar!! Yes, you know it but did you realize it is only a month away and the time will slip by & be here before you know it! So get ready to rumble (not grumble☺). YOUR help is and will be needed. The bazaar is a whole church event. Please prayerfully consider in which areas you would like to help.

There will be at least 2 more planning meetings & you are invited to attend. A sign up sheet will soon be available to fill in times & the area you will be available to work the day of event. AND to let us know what goodies you are willing to provide especially for the "country kitchen". (These items can include but not limited to baked goods like cakes, cookies, pies, cobblers, etc.; canned jams, jellies, apple butter; homemade candy; your specialty.)

There are still boxes in gym to place any items you may want to donate to silent auction, holiday store OR ACT booth (Antiques, Collectibles, and other Treasures).

We have a few more spaces for vendors to rent. We already have over 45! Give Sherry Windrow a call for any additional information.
