II TIMOTHY 3: 14 - 17; 4: 1 - 6 14But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, 15and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. 16All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

1In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: 2Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. 3For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. 5But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry. 6For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure.

PEOPLE: THANKS BE TO GOD.

God's Servants Sharing His Message I I Timothy 3:14-4:6

Introduction: Last Sunday we began to look at the Apostle Paul's instructions to the young minister Timothy telling how to be a good servant of Jesus. Today we continued along those lines centering in on II Timothy 4:1-6.

1. We are servants of God and Jesus Christ.
2. Next, Paul reminds us that:
  - A. Jesus will appear again on earth in bodily form.
  - B. Jesus will come to judge the living and the dead.
We will be required to give an account.
3. Timothy was urged to preach the Word.
4. Be aware that some will not listen.
5. Stay calm, endure hardship.
6. Do the work of an evangelist, lead people to Jesus.

This lesson is especially for ministers, but not for them only.

Children's Choir

It has been a year as we started children's choir in our church. And we wanted to thank all kids and their parents for serving God through this ministry and we thank all of you for your prayers and encouragements. We believe that worshiping God through music and singing is the most exciting thing to do, so we are happy to pass some music knowledge and experience to children in our church.

We practice usually on Sundays at 11:30 am right after the worship service. During 30 minutes of practice we work on the vocal breathing, we do vocal drills, learn basics in music notation, learn and sing songs, play music games and spend some time with God praying and sharing with Him our needs.

We are convinced that if adults are not able to sing it's mainly because they have not learned how to do it when they were children. Let your children come and learn to worship God through singing. Choir just started working on a Christmas song, which we plan to present on December 16 during 10:15 am worship service. So it's not late to join us!

God bless you!

Melanie Staudt and Sveta Yatskaya.

It's a Grand Night for Singing!

Who doesn't love a Show Tune? What about lots of great Broadway hits all in one evening? Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church is hosting an evening of Broadway music on Sunday, November 11 at 6:00pm, featuring students from Belmont University's Musical Theatre program as well as some of our terrific local talent. The program includes a variety of selections from well-known shows such as "Oliver," "South Pacific," "Showboat," and "Fiddler on the Roof." The evening also offers music from some contemporary musicals such as "Brooklyn," "Little Women," and others. Be prepared for some fancy footwork in the dance routines! You really won't want to miss this. As with the other concerts in the community classical series, this program is free of charge.

Remember those who are homebound or in Nursing Homes. Pray for our troops as they serve around the world. Pray that God will safeguard them and provide for their needs, whether physical, spiritual or emotional. Pray for peace for the Cumberland Presbyterian Churches in Buenaventura, Columbia, South America.(Church Bombings)
