OFFERING PRAISE TO GOD

OPENING - 10:15 am "GREAT IS THE LORD" Choir/Congregation No. 31

CALL TO WORSHIP: †

LEADER: After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried with a loud voice, saying:

PEOPLE: Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!

LEADER: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

PEOPLE: People will come from the east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the Kingdom of Heaven.

CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: O LORD, we acknowledge our wickedness and the guilt of our fathers; we have indeed sinned against you. (Jeremiah 14:20)

Prayer of Confession: (UNISON) Eternal God, in every age you have raised men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who served you with faith, hope and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ. (Continue in silent prayer) Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness: God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:19 NIV)

I THESSALONIANS 1:2-10

2 We always thank God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers. 3 We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. 4 For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, 5 because our gospel came to you not simply with words, but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake. 6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord; in spite of severe suffering, you welcomed the message with the joy given by the Holy Spirit. 7 And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 The Lord's message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, 9 for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

Faith, Hope and Love I Thessalonians 1:2-10 Goal: To Challenge the congregation to follow the example of the Christians at Thessalonica: Believing in Jesus and living in faith, love and hope.

Introduction: There are a number of ways to motivate people to do what you want them to do. I name 3; One is to tell them what they are to do, like the Apostle Paul telling Timothy what he is to do. Another is to brag on a person (or some people) who has/have done something good and if he respects the one doing the bragging A third way to motivate people is to use the example of other people and what they have done and the hearer

It's a Grand Night for Singing!

Who doesn't love a Show Tune? What about lots of great Broadway hits all in one evening? Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church is hosting an evening of Broadway music on Sunday, November 11 at 6:00pm, featuring students from Belmont University's Musical Theatre program as well as some of our terrific local talent. The program includes a variety of selections from well-known shows such as "Oliver," "South Pacific," "Showboat," and "Fiddler on the Roof." The evening also offers music from some contemporary musicals such as "Brooklyn," "Little Women," and others. Be prepared for some fancy footwork in the dance routines! You really won't want to miss this. As with the other concerts in the community classical series, this program is free of charge.

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

December 2, 6:30pm, Sunday, Jenkins CPC –A Classical Music Concert welcoming Advent in our community for the third year. This time it will be featuring medieval and Renaissance music. The unique selection of the most beautiful madrigals, dances, and Christmas carols will be performed by local musicians with a variety of music instruments: flute, recorders, violin, guitars, hand bells, Celtic harp, etc. If you are dreaming about the unforgettable and relaxing moment during the noisy Christmas season then you will enjoy this event of acoustic music with candles! Come and tune your heart for peace and feel the true meaning of this season! It was a great experience last year, and it promises to be even better!

From the preacher
Honoring God

I want to share with you who read this some thoughts that I had recently about our commitment to God. It is my hope that this will be a challenge to all of us. As the thoughts came to me, I wrote them down and then later read them for myself. They challenged me to draw nearer to God and to do more to honor and glorify Him.

Question One: How serious are you about your relationship with God?

Question Two: How devoted, committed and/or dedicated are you to God and the work of His kingdom?

Question Three: What do you see as the value of God in you life (of having a close relationship with God)?

Question Four: What does your participation in the life of Christ body, the church, and reveal about your relationship with God?

These are just some thoughts that came to me. Just maybe they were sent to me by God Himself as I try to be a good pastor and be obedient to Him.

There are many ways to serve God and His Son, our Savior, Jesus. Probably no way is better in today's world than when we meet with other believers and worship Him.

We can meet God anywhere and worship Him anywhere. I have been told many times of the places we can meet Him and worship Him. I agree with them all. God is everywhere. But do we worship Him when we are in these other places and have not gone there for the particular purpose of worshipping Him?

And remember that other people need your encouragement and support when they come to God's house to worship Him, even if you don't feel that you need them.

Here's hoping to be with you in worship.

Emphasizing Evangelism

With an emphasis on evangelism in our denomination I have been thinking about the ways to evangelize or examples of evangelizing that are found in the New Testament.

The example of John the Baptist calling people to God is recorded in Matthew 3. In Matthew 4 we find that Jesus began to preach, calling people to, "turn from sin and turn to God, for the Kingdom of heaven is near." In the same chapter we read that Jesus invited Peter and Andrew, who were fishermen, to come with Him. He promised to show them how to fish for the souls of men.

In Matthew 5 Jesus talks to a crowd of people and tells them that they are the flavoring or seasoning for the world. Is flavoring the world evangelizing? I believe that it is.

Jesus said to the crowd, "you are the world's light, glowing in the night for all to see. Let your light shine for all. Let your good deeds glow for all to see, so that they will praise your heavenly father." Isn't that evangelizing, too?

And this is just the beginning. There are 23 more chapters in Mathew and 26 more books in the New Testament to find examples of evangelism. Look them up. Make a list and pass it on to me.

Larry Guin

The Grace Team

I have stated before every work trip that we are taking a Spiritual Journey. The journey we just completed was that and more!!!

Mathew 5:16 "...let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in Heaven." Sometimes when on work trips we get mired in mud (literally this trip) and forget that we are first and foremost Christ's ambassadors. It is important to help with physical needs. We are making these trips to work on Hogar Samaria because there is physical work that we can help with there. However, how we conduct ourselves can be so important. I could give you details about how hard we worked the two weeks in Colombia. We did not go there as evangelists. God had a lesson for us. Edgar and Iris Straube and Leopoldo Fonseca had opportunity to share the gospel with a Colombian who was volunteering along side us. His name is George Prado. George lives in one of the poorest neighborhoods in Cali. His daughter Martha and he came every day we were there. Most of his family is Christians. Now Praise God so is he. Of the worlds goods he is among the poorest, but he is an heir to all the wonders of heaven because he has put his trust in Jesus.

It humbles me to think that we can get caught up in our 'works' and forget that God's plan is so much greater than our feeble efforts. There is rejoicing in heaven, not because of all the hard work we did, but because one lost soul has been found!!!!

Join us on our next Spiritual Journey Jan. 26 – Feb, 9, 2008.
