CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: When they had assembled..... they fasted and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." (I Samuel 7:6)

Prayer of Confession: (UNISON) Lord who raises the dead and who, at the last, will stand upon the earth, we exalt you for wedding us to You through the present and coming Lord. Redeem us from sin. Often we lose courage and give up on You. We get bogged down in trying to trap one another with questions that focus on the wrong issues. We indulge in endless complaining about what is wrong with the world instead of believing that the greater splendor is coming, and living accordingly. By the blood of Jesus Christ, forgive us. Help us to live like those who know that the Redeemer lives. (copied) (Continue in silent prayer) Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness: if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. (II Chronicles 7:14)

The Sanctuary Sunday School class is beginning a new Bible study derived from Chip Ingram's newest book, "Good to Great in God's Eyes". Most of us want to be great at our jobs, great husbands or wives, great parents, great friends, great at a particular sport and great in every other area of our lives, and yet we seem perfectly intent to be mediocre Christians. God's notion greatness differs from ours! In this lecture-based series we will explore 10 characteristics that great Christians have in common, and if you let Him, God will lead you and mold you into becoming a truly great Christian. If you aren't already in an adult Sunday School class, I encourage you to join us!

OUTREACH COMMITTEE NEWS: There is an infant/child CPR certification class on Tuesday, November 13th @6:30 p.m. in place of our regular exercise class. ALSO, we are helping local families in need during Christmas with food, clothing, presents, etc. If you or your group would like to help us help others, we welcome your participation! Luke 20:27-38

27 Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question. 28 "Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother. 29 Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. 30 The second 31 and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. 32 Finally, the woman died too. 33 Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?"

34 Jesus replied, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35 But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, 36 and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, since they are children of the resurrection. 37 But in the account of the bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.'"

READER: THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE PEOPLE OF GOD.

PEOPLE: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Who doesn't love a Show Tune? What about lots of great Broadway hits all in one evening? Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church is hosting an evening of Broadway music on Sunday, November 11 at 6:00pm, featuring students from Belmont University's Musical Theatre program as well as some of our terrific local talent. The program includes a variety of selections from well-known shows such as "Oliver," "South Pacific," "Showboat," and "Fiddler on the Roof." The evening also offers music from some contemporary musicals such as "Brooklyn," "Little Women," and others. Be prepared for some fancy footwork in the dance routines! You really won't want to miss this. As with the other concerts in the community classical series, this program is free of charge.

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

December 2, 6:30pm, Sunday, Jenkins CPC –A Classical Music Concert welcoming Advent in our community for the third year. This time it will be featuring medieval and Renaissance music. The unique selection of the most beautiful madrigals, dances, and Christmas carols will be performed by local musicians with a variety of music instruments: flute, recorders, violin, guitars, hand bells, Celtic harp, etc. If you are dreaming about the unforgettable and relaxing moment during the noisy Christmas season then you will enjoy this event of acoustic music with candles!
