CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: Psalm 51:3-4a

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned and done what is evil in Your sight...

Prayer of Confession: (Unison) Almighty God, You poured Your Spirit upon gathered disciples creating bold tongues, open ears, and a new community of faith. We confess that we hold back the force of Your Spirit among us. We do not listen for Your word of grace, speak the good news of Your love, or live as a people made one in Christ. Have mercy on us, O God. Transform our timid lives by the power of Your Spirit, and fill us with a flaming desire to be Your faithful people, doing Your will for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assurance of Forgiveness: Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." Nathan replied, "The LORD has taken away your sin. You are not going to die. 2 Samuel 12:13

Tribute to Mothers

"Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you. Exodus 20:12

Listen, my son, to your father's instruction, and do not forsake your mother's teaching. They will be a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck. Proverbs 1:8-9

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. "Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with a promise "that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth." Ephesians 6:1-3

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life. She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy. She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: Proverbs 31: 10-12,20,25,26,28.

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home. John 19: 25-27

MOTHER'S DAY

Throughout the ages, mothers have held an esteemed position comparable to queens, saints and flags of nations. Poets and musicians have vocalized the virtues of mothers and motherhood through sonnets and songs.

An old historic church in the north central section of West Virginia is perpetually maintained as an elegant, sacred shrine to all mothers everywhere, living and dead. Many people know of the church, and also that Miss Ann M. Jarvis was the founder of Mother's Day, and that the first authorized Mother's Day service was held at this same Andrews Methodist Church in Grafton, W. Va. The first sermon preached for Mother's Day was on May 10, 1908.

Inspired by the life and work of her mother, Mrs. Anna R. Jarvis, Miss Jarvis persisted in her efforts to establish a day honoring her mother and all mothers. She persuaded friends to have a service May 12, 1907, in Andrews Church to her mother, who had taught and worked in that church for many years prior to her death in 1905. Organizing a national Mother's day committee, which included H.J. Heinz of Pittsburgh and John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, Miss Jarvis drafted plans for a day in 1908 when all mothers would be exalted.

At Miss Jarvis' urging, Sunday morning, May 10, 1908 was set aside at Andrews Church for such an observance. Following a special Sunday School service, directed by superintendent L.L. Loar, church members and friends went upstairs to the sanctuary for a Mother's Day church service. The minister, the late Dr. Harry C. Howard, used the text of Christ's words from the cross, "Woman, behold thy son! Then said He to the disciple, Behold your mother!" for a sermon extolling mothers.

That morning 500 white carnations, sent by Miss Jarvis from Philadelphia, were distributed. Miss Jarvis declared one of the purposes of a special day honoring mothers was "to create a bond of brotherhood through the wearing of a floral badge, the white carnation" (her mother's favorite flower). At the service, the congregation passed a resolution setting aside the second Sunday of May each year as Mother's Day.

President Woodrow Wilson, in 1914, signed a resolution designating the second Sunday of May each year as Mother's day.

Such wide acceptance of the idea surprised the preacher of the first authorized service, as he confessed years later. "It didn't occur to me at the time, that Mother's Day would become first a statewide and then a national event."
