CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: (I John 1:8) If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

Prayer of Confession: from (Genesis 32, Romans 9, Matthew 14.) Gracious God, Provider of all we need, we are often content to rely on our own devices, our creativity, our cleverness. We congratulate ourselves for our accomplishments, yet we find that these achievements and acquisitions do not fill the deep hunger inside of us. We long for the Spirit bread You alone can provide. Forgive us, merciful God. Help us receive the blessings You offer, that we may be Your bread for the world---blessed, broken for all. (Continue silently) Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness: (Psalm 17, Matthew 14)... Hear the good news. God's mercy is plentiful, and God's grace is abundant. Receive the bread of forgiveness and steadfast love.

Church Library News

Henry Blackaby, author of Experiencing God, uses the example set by Abraham to show how God uses difficult life experiences to lead us to spiritual maturity in his book, Created To Be God's Friend How God Shapes Those He Loves. Faith is mindful obedience to God's voice, and according to Blackaby, obedience brings a fuller depth of knowledge of God. God desires His people to become His lifelong and dearly beloved friends, and the way to do that is to emulate Abraham's response to God.

Matthew 13:31-33; 44-52

31 He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. 32 Though it is the smallest of all your seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches." 33 He told them still another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount of flour until it worked all through the dough."

44 "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field. 45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. 46 When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it. 47 "Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds of fish. 48 When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away. 49 This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous 50and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 51 "Have you understood all these things?" Jesus asked. "Yes," they replied. 52 He said to them, "Therefore every teacher of the law who has been instructed about the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old."

READER: THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE PEOPLE OF GOD.

PEOPLE: THANKS BE TO GOD.

What God's Kingdom is Like

Matthew 13:31-33; 44-52

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven.

THANKS

Many, many thanks to you who have given Susan your support and encouragement during her time as the Youth Director at Jenkins church. Her time in that position spans about 10 years. From a father's standpoint, we believe that she has done a super job. Of course, our eyes could be clouded, but I do not think so.

It is with much sadness and much gladness, that we send her off to a new job. Susan will be working with the Denominational Board of Christian Education as Director of Youth and Young Adult Activities.

We are pleased that she was seen as capable of filling that position.

The sad part is that she will leave a vacancy in the Jenkins church and in the lives of those involved in the youth work here, and that she is taking our grandchildren and son-in-law with her as she leaves.

Please keep her and us in your prayers as we adjust to the transition.

Lg

NEW YOUTH WORKER

The Christian Education Committee is busy in searching for a person to fill the position as Youth Director at Jenkins Church.

The committee has interviewed two people who have had great success in their present position. One thing that we know is that we will need to increase the salary substantially for a person who has a proven record or success with a youth program.

We ask your prayers concerning this very important part of the church's life.

SANCTUARY SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Jaime Groce has been teaching the Sanctuary Sunday school Class since May. And then the move presented itself (for you who do not know, Jaime is Susan's husband) so we will have a change here.

STEVE ALLEMORE has agreed to teach the SANCTUARY SUNDAY CLASS. This class is a lecture class with multi-media often used in the presentation.

This may be the time that you want to join the SANCTUARY SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.

COMING

Wednesday Supper and Worship will resume on August 13th.

PRAY FOR GOD'S GUIDANCE IN ALL THAT WE DO.
Larry Guin

SNAPSHOTS OF TIME

The designers of an innovative Web site call their creation a “snapshot” of our world. Every hour, computer monitor international news sources, select the most frequently occurring words and pictures, then display them as an interactive image. Over time, these hourly snapshots compose a mosaic of unfolding world events.

If a computer could track our words and actions, what would a snapshot of yesterday reveal? Over the weeks and months, what patterns would emerge? And what theme would dominate the final mosaic of our lives?

Psalm 90, a prayer of Moses the man of God, is a powerfully honest look at the brevity and significance of life. The writer compares an entire lifetime to a dream or a blade of grass, and cries out to God: “So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom” (v.12). Our days often seem so insignificant, yet they add up to so much. The Message renders verse 12: “Teach us to live wisely and well.” It is a prayer for the snapshots of life with the final image in view.

When all the pictures of our life are laid on the table, they will reveal our recurring words and actions. What story will they tell? It’s worth considering as we make our choices each day. -David McCasland

God has given life abundant -

Live it fully every day;

Through our time on earth is fleeting,

He goes with us all the way. - Hess
