Prayer of Confession: (Unison) Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy Holy name. (continue silently) Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness: (Isaiah 55:7) Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

READER: THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE PEOPLE OF GOD.
PEOPLE: THANKS BE TO GOD.

Back to the Foot of the Cross

The notion behind this message, which comes on the heels of Thanksgiving week, and on the first Sunday in Advent, is to revisit the foot of the cross - to reflect on the thing for which we are most thankful – and to reflect on the purpose that brought Jesus to that Bethlehem manger. I pray that it will help bring us Christians to worship and renewal and that it will provide an opportunity for any unbelievers.
