CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to confession: We have sinned, even as our fathers did; we have done wrong and acted wickedly. (Psalm 106:6)

Prayer of Confession: (Unison) Mighty God, we hear the words of Your Son, "The kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news"; but we treat it as advice to others who are long dead. We view the faithfulness of James and John, who immediately left their boats to follow Jesus, as a bewildering story of blind trust in a complete stranger. We imagine ourselves with their devotion, even as we cannot find the time to study Your word, much less to have the inclination to leave familiar paths behind. Bless us with Your steadfast love, that we might truly live as those who have seen Your kingdom draw near. Amen. (Silent prayers may be offered) Amen. (1 Corinthians 7, Mark 1)

Words of Assurance: Just as God forgave the people of Nineveh when they repented and turned from their evil ways, so God will forgive us also when we seek forgiveness for our sins. Pour out your hearts before God, who is our refuge and our strength. (Jonah 3, Psalm 62)

HYMN "At Calvary" No. 338

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: 2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you." 3 Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very important city—a visit required three days. 4 On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed: "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned." 5 The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

10 When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he had compassion and did not bring upon them the destruction he had threatened.

Mark 1: 14-20

14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God. 15 "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!" 16 As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. 17 "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." 18 At once they left their nets and followed him. 19 When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, preparing their nets. 20 Without delay he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Answering God's Call

Jonah 3:1-5,10; Mark 1:14-20

Have you thought about God's call to you this week?

Last Sunday.

This Sunday.

The call of God to an individual is not complete until the one being called answers.

Movie: Cool Hand Luke --- "...failure to communicate."

Example: telephone call.

I find Wm. Barclay's comments on Jesus' call to Peter and Andrew and James and John appropriate to our present setting.

Notice: Who these men were. Simple folks.

What they were doing when Jesus called. Their day's work.

How Jesus called them. Follow me.

What Jesus offered them. A task. Work.

The call of God to an individual is not complete until the one being called answers.

Our Prayer List: We leave names on for four weeks at a time. If a name has been removed and you wish to add them back on, please feel free to contact the office or fill out a pew card and place it in the offering plate.
