Prayer of Confession: (Unison) Gracious God, we want to hold on to what we know; we are afraid to take risks for the sake of the gospel; we want to keep our lives safe. Forgive us, O God, when we cling to comfort, when we build barriers to protect ourselves, when we chose the easy way. Transform our fears, that we may deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Jesus to serve the world. Amen. (Continue with silent confession) Amen. (From Mark 8)

Mark 8:27-38

²⁷ Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, "Who do people say I am?" ²⁸ They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets." ²⁹ "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ." ³ Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him. ³¹ He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again. ³² He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ³³ But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" he said. "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." ³⁴ Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. ³⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it. ³⁶ What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? ³⁷ Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸ If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

Church Library News

John Piper's book, The Passion of Jesus Christ, illustrates through biblical evidence how Christ's suffering on the cross was turned to glory by the enormity and diversity of what his death achieved. As we enter this season of Lent, a time of prayer and personal reflection, this book answers the question: Why did Jesus suffer and die?

Classical Music Concert - Duo Piano Recital March 8, 2009 at 4:00 PM at Historic Franklin Presbyterian Church (435 main Street Franklin, Tn.) Dress rehearsal is Sat.
March 7 at 4:00 PM

To all friends of our classical music nights in Nolensville (at Jenkins CPC) I want to bring my apologies for canceling a concert this spring due to my health problems. We expected to have guest pianists - Will Berger & June Warren who kindly agreed to give a concert in our church, but we had to postpone this event till next fall. Nevertheless, all those who don't want to miss a free cultural event this season are invited to attend the piano duet concert by Will Berger and June Warren this weekend in Franklin on Saturday or Sunday. I attended it last spring (they have this concert only once a year) and enjoyed it a lot! Sincerely yours, Sveta Yatskaya (a minister of music).
