CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: I will confess my sins to the Lord. (Psalm 32:5b)

Prayer of Confession: (Unison) God of steadfast love, fools say in their hearts: "There is no God." How often, O Lord, are we the fools who confess You with our lips, but deny You with our actions? How often do we act as if You sleep, O God, confident that You know not what we do? How often, like King David before us, do we seek to hide the fruit of our sin, rather than confess our transgression? How often do we cause others to stumble, when we act hypocritically in our faith? Help us be constant as the north star, O God, that others have no occasion to witness our example and say: "I'd be a Christian if it weren't for the Christians." (Continue silently) Amen.

Words of Assurance: (Psalm 14) When God restored the fortunes of Zion, they were like people who dream—people who rejoiced and were glad. As God restores our fortunes, let us join them in their glad song and in their rejoicing.

Luke 5:1-11;

¹ One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the people crowding around him and listening to the word of God, ² he saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. ³ He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch." ⁵ Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets." ⁶ When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. ⁷ So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. ⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" ⁹ For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, ¹⁰ and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will catch men." ¹¹ So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

John 21:4-6

⁴ Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. ⁵ He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?" "No," they answered. ⁶ He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

Going to the deep water.

Let's catch some fish. Peter was tired. Jesus said let's go!! Peter was undone.

Evangelism. Catching men. We need to go out to deeper water.

Too often we wait because the time is not opportune. If we wait for a perfect set of circumstances we will never begin. If we want a miracle we must take Jesus at His word when He bids us attempt the impossible. (William Barklay)

How?

1. Personal relationship with Jesus.
2. Put feet on your faith. Don't be afraid.
3. Pay the price. God's work done God's way will never lack God's provision.
4. Get excited.

Remember those who are homebound or in Nursing Homes, ill and in pain. Pray for our troops as they serve around the world. Pray that God will safeguard them and provide for their needs, whether physical, spiritual or emotional. Pray for peace for the Cumberland Presbyterian Churches in Buenaventura, Columbia, South America. (Church Bombings)

Wednesday Night Prayer concerns: Melanie's brother Gary; Cathy Green.

The best mathematical equation I have ever seen:
