CONFESSING OUR SIN

Call to Confession: We may honor Him with our lips, but are our hearts far from Him?

Prayer of Confession: (Unison) Dear God, too many of our days are consumed with doubt—doubt if there is enough love, enough blessing, enough creativity, enough grace, enough compassion, or enough kindness in the world to bring about the promise of your kingdom. Dear God, we wonder if even your great love can make a difference in our lives. Convinced of our unworthiness, our hearts and our imaginations wither and harden in despair, as we turn away from you. Shatter the illusions that separate us from each other. Pour out your life-giving waters on our wounded hearts in forgiveness and grace. (Continue silently) Amen. (Mark 7)

Words of Assurance: Our God is always ready to rain blessings on us, to pour hope into our souls. By the life and love of Jesus the Christ, we are redeemed in God's eyes. (Mark 7)

John 8:12

Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, "I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won't have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life." (NLT)

Ephesians 4:17-24

¹⁷ So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. ¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts. ¹⁹ Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, with a continual lust for more. ²⁰ You, however, did not come to know Christ that way. ²¹ Surely you heard of him and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. ²² You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; ²³ to be made new in the attitude of your minds; ²⁴ and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness. (NIV)

“Character Counts-Building a Life that Pleases God”*

Our character dictates the kinds of decisions we make and determines how we treat those around us. In the ups and downs of life, godly character serves as a stabilizing force, keeping us anchored in Christ.

This study covers the development of godly character from two distinct angles. First, we will examine the concept of godly character and look at character traits that exhibit godly living. We will look at men and women from the Bible and become better acquainted with their individual qualities—many of which are worth emulating. Second, we will look at the various roles we personify as adult men and women. Whether a particular role is active in your life, insight into the people we live and associate with every day will be gained.

Through our study together, we will strive to gain practical guidance to help us as mature adults be the spouse, parent, grandparent, and friend to those God has placed in our lives.

*From the bible—teaching ministry of Charles R. Swindoll

SANCTUARY CLASS: The pastor is presently teaching the Sanctuary class. We are in a study of FAITH, with the next lesson, on September 6th, being on the bible characters who have experienced victory through their faith.(Steve Allemore will lead the class on the 6th). This class has room for many more who are interested in faith matters.

FOR THE MIDDLE SCHOOL AGE FOLKS: On September 16th (Wednesday) the pastor will begin a 6 week class for the middle school folks who are interested in knowing about or more about the Christian life and being a member of a church. We will consider: Becoming a Christian, Becoming a church member, Worship, The bible, the sacraments, living as a Christian and The Cumberland Presbyterian Church. We will meet at 5:00 p.m. Hope to see many Middle School students.

FOR CHILDREN ON WEDNESDAY: Patrick is starting a new program on Wednesday nights for elementary aged children. There will be time spent learning bible stories, memorizing scriptures, and some play time. We hope that this accommodates more of our families with young children while at the same time building a strong foundation for the youth in our community.

A Pastor's class will begin on Wed. Sept. 16th at 5:00 pm for Middle school and up. Lessons about becoming & being a Christian & church member.
