Call to Confession: God of renewal, though Jesus' soul was troubled, he followed your ways with poise and purpose. Opening our eyes to your glory, Jesus taught us to see past our fears—to face death and the unknown, unafraid: "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain." Help us bear the fruit of new life, that you may be glorified, and that all people may come to know your ways.

Prayer of Confession: (In Silence) Renew us, Lord; wash us of our wickedness and cleanse us from our sin. Put your law within us and write it on our hearts. Take away our excuses, our protestations of ignorance, our pathetic insistence that we did not properly understand what we were doing. We long for the day when we will not feel compelled to beg excuses for our deeds. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within us. Do not cast us away from your presence and do not take your Holy Spirit from us. Amen

Words of Assurance: Through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, God has written the law of life on our hearts. No longer need we teach one another truths uttered of old, for God has placed the ways of life and death in our inward being. May we live as those who know the Lord!

Philippians 2:5-8

⁵ Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, ⁶ who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, ⁷ but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. ⁸ And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.
