Call to Confession: Wonderful God of all knowledge, share your wisdom with us in this time of quiet reflection. Open our ears to hear your call. Widen our vision to see your presence. Broaden our thoughts to know your ways. Speak to us now, in hope and trust.

Prayer of Confession: (In Silence) O God, you have searched us and known us.

When we are following you with confidence and when we are hiding out of fear, you are with us. Your knowledge is too wonderful for us, and yet it is your knowledge that we so desperately need. Speak to us now. Reveal our sins that we may truly repent. Empower us with the wisdom of your ways. Strengthen our courage and commitment to follow you in service to others. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen

Words of Assurance: God has formed our very being, making even our bodies members of Christ. We are united to God in Christ's love and grace. Receive God's forgiveness and walk in the Spirit.

Acts 10:1-6

1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. 2 He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. 3 One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!" 4 Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. 5 Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. 6 He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea."
