24 A dispute also arose among them, as to which of them was to be regarded as the greatest. 25 And he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those in authority over them are called benefactors. 26 But not so with you. Rather, let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. 27 For who is the greater, one who reclines at table or one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at table? But I am among you as the one who serves. 28 "You are those who have stayed with me in my trials, 29 and I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom, 30 that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Thanksgiving

I am always surprised at how early in the fall every store is filled with Halloween merchandise, only to be overtaken by Christmas merchandise and advertising which actually starts happening before Halloween day. I probably should not even get started on homes covered in Halloween lights with blow up decorations. I wonder how long it will be before there is a Halloween Man coming down the chimney each year to deliver treats to the good boys and girls and tricks to the bad. I mean no disrespect; it all just seems to be a little over the top.

There is a wonderful but less attractive holiday sandwiched in between Satan and Santa. Lol!!! Hahahaha! (For those of you who do not text "lol" means "Laugh out loud" and "Hahahaha" means "I'm joking") I am referring to Thanksgiving Day. I love Thanksgiving especially because it does not get all the commercialization of the other holidays. I love Thanksgiving because it is a time for family to come together around the table and the focus is more on visiting and reconnecting than any other thing (except the food of course).

Our family usually takes some time to share the things for which we are thankful. We have a special prayer of Thanksgiving together with family who we do not always have the opportunity to share special moments like these, because of schedules and distance.

I realize thankfulness to God and each other is something we should express every day, but I am so thankful the leaders of our country could see the importance of a nation needing a special day to set aside commerce and government and express Thanksgiving to God for all His blessings.

Thank you for calling me and my family to come be a part of Jenkins, and allowing me the privilege of leading as your pastor. Everyone at Jenkins has been so gracious and kind to us and we truly appreciate each of you. I hope all of you are able to spend time with your family and friends this Thanksgiving Day and may your time together be special.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Watson, Pastor

MORTGAGE PAY DOWN

The session recently approved a plan to pay $10,000 before the end of this year on the principal of our loan. We have received $2,500 to date so we still need $7,500 before the end of the year. The amount left on the church loan is about $247,000. We currently use church fundraisers such as the Sleigh Bells Bazaar to pay extra on the church's loan each year. The $10,000 year end goal for 2012 is to be paid on the principal in addition to all other fundraising for this year. Our goal is to raise $10,000 before the end of 2012 and we need your help. We have adopted this measure because we realize the retirement of our loan is essential to be more effective ministers of the Gospel, and to this end will increase the ability of all ministries of our church to be more effective for Christ. We thank you for your prayers and participation in this matter of seeing our church become debt free.

LOAVES AND FISHES

The Loaves and Fishes offering is designated to help support the Cumberland Presbyterian mission work in Guatemala in developing a second medical clinic. Loaves + Fishes boxes can be found in the back of the Sanctuary by the lamp tables. Take one home, set it in a very visible place, add change to it, pray for God's blessings on your offering, and return it to church on Sunday, November 18.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

We still need teachers for our preschool class. If you are willing to teach for 3 – 4 months, and then rotate off, please contact Julie Bomar or Debra Eckert.

The "Faithful Friends" Sunday School class is currently studying the book of Romans. We are examining and learning about topics such as mercy, grace, the sovereignty of God, and relating to others in love. Allan Stout leads this class.

Unity Class Study: The Unity class will begin a new study, Discovering The Voice of God: How To Recognize when God Speaks, on Sunday, December 2nd. If you're interested in participating in this study, see Sonya Haywood and she'll order your book.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

December 16 at 9 a.m.

We extend our invitation to all of you who would like to join us for the season of celebration of our Savior's birth!

"A Great And Mighty Wonder" cantata arranged by Tom Fettke is a collection of inspirational Christmas classics.

It's an easy, yet beautiful arrangement that everybody can sing and enjoy!

Books and rehearsal CDs are available for all choir members. If you are unable to practice with us regularly, the rehearsal CD is a great solution – you can listen to your vocal part of the songs in the car or at home.

Cantata rehearsals will be held every Tuesday from 6:30 pm till 7:30 pm in the sanctuary. If you have any questions, please contact Sveta.

QUILTING NEWS

We have begun piecing our latest endeavor: a string quilt. We also need an ironing board – if you have one you are willing to part with, please contact any of our quilters.
