Genesis 22:9-14

Then they came to the place of which God had told him; and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. 10 Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. 11 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." 12 He said, "Do not stretch out your hand against the lad, and do nothing to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me." 13 Then Abraham raised his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in the thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram and offered him up for a burnt offering in the place of his son. 14 Abraham called the name of that place The LORD Will Provide, as it is said to this day, "In the mount of the LORD it will be provided."

Does Being a Member of a Church Really Matter?

Why should a Christian become a member of a local church? Here are 5 misconceptions about becoming a member of a local church:

1. Church membership will get you into heaven.
2. Church membership is a status symbol, a “Who’s Who Contest”.
3. Church membership is like becoming a member of a club that has membership dues, business meetings, and service projects.
4. Church membership is just a silly creation of man, created so denominations can brag about numbers.
5. “Why should I become a member if I’m already a member of the body of Christ?”

I think the term “membership” is largely responsible for many of the misconceptions stated above. The idea of “joining a local congregation” may start to move us closer to a biblical understanding of what it means to be a church member. A man and woman are joined together in the holy covenant of marriage. The word “joined” in the context of marriage represents the covenant bond that is created when two people vow to love and support each other. Covenant relationship is what we really mean when we talk about church membership, and covenant relationship is not a creation of man but of God.

David and Jonathan’s relationship in the Old Testament (Old Covenant) is a wonderful model that illustrates the importance of church membership (covenant). David and Jonathan were both Israelites, which means they were both covenant members of the Israelite family of God having been circumcised on the eighth day of each of their births. It would be correct to state that Jonathan and David were covenant brothers and yet they sought to form another covenant together once they became friends.

Why did they feel it so important to form another covenant? David had just killed Goliath and was brought before Saul with the head of Goliath in hand to present to the King. 1 Samuel 18:1-4 states that when David finished speaking to the king, the soul of Jonathan was knit to David. Jonathan and David made a covenant, and Jonathan gave David his robe, his armor, his sword, his bow, and his belt. We know from the events that followed this covenant, it was a brotherly bond of deep importance to both of them. Jonathan warned David of his father’s evil intentions toward David on more than one occasion, and even after Jonathan’s death King David searched out the land to find a descendant of Jonathan’s, so he could honor his covenant with Jonathan by blessing Jonathan’s descendants.

They formed this covenant because God had knit them together as close friends. Everyone needs a friend they can count on and a community with which they can share. We all need relationships that challenge us, and persons who will stand with us in the heat of battle and walk with us through the storms of life. David and Jonathan were covenant brothers through circumcision, but felt compelled to form another covenant that would sustain them as they carried out their life’s callings.

Christians everywhere are brothers and sisters from the moment we believe on Christ, but God brings us together at the time of His choosing so we may enter into another covenant (a church covenant) to support one another in Christian friendship and carry out ministry together.

Jonathan and David were saying “I will be there for you anytime you need me. I will uphold you in what you are doing and I believe you will uphold me the same.” This is the nature of church membership today. When we join a church family we are saying to the community with which we worship and share ministry, “I commit myself to you, I will walk with you in ministry and we will support each other in the work we do together for the Lord.” May each of you prayerfully consider if it is time for you and your family to commit yourselves to this church family for our mutual support and ministry.

Join us for dinner, silent auction and singing! D's Delight is providing their famous BBQ. We are collecting Silent Auction items, preparing music and soliciting your help whenever and wherever you feel led. Look for signup sheets in the vestibule to give of your time (before, during, or after BBQ), your talents (baked goods) and your treasures (for Silent Auction).

OUTREACH SUMMERTIME FUN CARNIVAL

30 HOUR FAMINE

Friday evening, February 22, 64 already-hungry youth and several hungry adults converged on Jenkins Church! All had been fasting since around 12 pm that afternoon, and would continue to fast until 6pm the following day. Yep! 30 whole hours!

During that time, the kids and adults were very active. We played broom hockey at A-game sports Friday evening and assisted in clean up and repairs at Green Street Church, downtown Nashville on Saturday. Green Street is home to quite a few less fortunate people who stay in tents on the lawn. The youth worked very hard, despite severe hunger, and the people at Green Street were very appreciative.

A band from Presbyterian Student Fellowship at MTSU joined us in leading worship! They were fantastic! We owe a big thank you to Steve Allemore, Debbie Day, Allan and Diana Stout, and Jonna Farner who helped prepare our post-fast meal! It was a great weekend!

NOLENSVILLE ARBOR DAY: Jenkins youth will help plant trees Saturday, March 2, 9 am – 12 pm.

CONGRATULATIONS to Micah Watson, on receiving his Bachelor's degree in Global Studies from MTSU!!

COME CELEBRATE HOLY WEEK WITH OUR CHOIR

On Palm Sunday, March 24, at 10:15, we will worship with a palm leaves procession, Jewish praise music and both traditional and contemporary songs of "Hosannas!"

Children who would like to participate in the procession are invited to practice Wednesday, March 20, 5:50 p.m. and Sunday, March 24 during Sunday School.

The Easter Sunday worship service, 9 a.m., March 31, will feature an Easter Cantata presented by choir & praise band.

It's not too late to join the choir; everyone is welcome. We practice Tuesdays 6:30 p.m. till 7:45 p.m.

MUSIC MINISTRY AT THE MISSION

We will lead worship and bring God's Word at the Nashville Rescue Mission on Thursday, March 14, 6:50 p.m. Please keep this ministry in prayer; join us if you are able.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

The March collection is for small toys and dolls and craft kits for the older children. (Nothing war-related, please.) We also need more shoeboxes.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

God speaks of His Word in Deuteronomy 11:19, saying "19 Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up." Jenkins Church needs loving people with a heart for children to teach God's Word to them. Please contact Debra Eckert or Julie Bomar if you can help in any of these areas:

- Sunday School teachers and substitutes
- Elementary school leader for children on Wednesday evenings beginning March 27
- Vacation Bible School director, leaders, and workers

MDO NEWS

The children at MDO have had a fantastic week celebrating Read Across America and Dr. Seuss' birthday! Our March chapel theme is faithfulness. "A faithful man will be richly blessed" Prov. 28:20.
