²⁵ And a lawyer stood up and put Him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁶ And He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How does it read to you?" ²⁷ And he answered, "YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF." ²⁸ And He said to him, "You have answered correctly; DO THIS AND YOU WILL LIVE." ²⁹ But wishing to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Friend Day

Fifth Sunday is going to be a special day for us this year. Each fifth Sunday has been designated as Friend Day in 2014. The truth is every Sunday should be friend day and I hope Friend Day will help all of us develop a habit of inviting people to church. You do not have to wait till Friend Day to start inviting your friends to church. If you can get folks coming to church with you on the Sundays leading up to Friend Day, it will be much easier for them to respond to your special invitation to be there on Friend Day.

Church growth studies show the most effective church growth method is friends inviting friends to church. The question, "Would you be my guest at church this Sunday?" followed up with this assurance, "I will meet you in the vestibule and we will have a seat saved for you beside us." is a combination that makes it difficult for anyone to say, "no".

Recently, I was listening to a business consultant talk about growing a business. He was explaining the difference in effectiveness of 20 people coming to work in one person's company over the course of a year, versus 20 people coming to work in one's company in one month. The difference was amazing. He was able to show an exponential difference in earning power by the 20 people who came on board in one month, while the 20 who came on board over the course of a year made only a very small difference in earnings. The consultant confessed while he had seen this proven time and time again he did not know exactly why it worked, but that it just did.

How would this apply to church growth and specially our church? Imagine for a moment 20 families coming into our church over the next year. What if over the course of the year five of those families did not stick with us, five of them only came once a month, seven of them were attending fairly regularly, and three families joined the church by the end of the year.

Now, imagine 20 families coming into our church in one month. How might things be different? Twenty families could generate a fair amount of excitement throughout the church. These families would probably generate a fair amount of excitement among each other, and develop a closer bond in a much shorter amount of time. The result over the course of one year would probably be only three of those families deciding to look elsewhere, three families becoming once a month attendees, while five families start attending fairly regularly, and the other nine families join the church. Five of those families take roles of leadership in the church, and one of those becoming an elder by the end of the first year.

When you think it through, it is not too difficult to visualize, and find agreement with the business consultant about the dramatic impact 20 people in 30 days would make on a business or 20 families on a church. One of the best ways to see something like this become a reality is by invitation. Please do not be afraid to hear "no", because the only way to hear "YES" is to ask the question.
