Revelation 12:7-12

7 And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels waging war with the dragon. The dragon and his angels waged war, 8 and they were not strong enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. 10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, he who accuses them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death. 12 For this reason, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time."

April 2014

Easter Resurrection Sunday

I grew up in the McMinnville Cumberland Presbyterian Church and we celebrated Easter every year. I remember, as a child, being so excited about boiling eggs. I would be in the kitchen to help mom with the coloring process. How much fun it was to prepare for Easter! We would go downtown every Saturday before Easter. There was this one department store called Lay's that always had a display for little yellow chicks for sale every year. I am not sure why but I always begged for one of those little chicks. I do remember wondering why they sold chicks when Easter was all about Bunny Rabbits. Everybody knows bunny rabbits lay Easter eggs. I mean... duh!

Finally that special day would arrive. All the children were so excited to be at church on Easter Sunday. We could hardly wait for the Sunday school lesson to be over only to be made to endure an hour long worship service before the real festivities could begin. It did not matter what the preacher was preaching Easter Sunday, my eyes were fixed on the extracurricular activities of selected individuals easing toward the back door about midway through the preaching and we knew the hiding of the Easter eggs had begun. "Oh, how exciting!" "I wonder if I will find the golden egg, or maybe the silver egg, or what if I find them both and win the chocolate Easter bunnies and the grand prize Easter basket!!!"

Finally the service is over and I am thinking we should be headed out the back door, but one of the ladies would take charge and announce that the children needed to stay in the sanctuary just a few minutes longer as the adults were finishing up hiding the eggs. "Oh, how much longer do we have to wait." I would be whining and bobbing up and down in place with nervous excitement, holding both legs together so as not to pee on myself during all the anticipation and needless waiting. "Come on, Come on, let us go! It's time the hunt Easter eggs."

Then we were off! Out the door, down the steps only to be told we had to wait till everyone was outside and ready. Finally they released us to go hunt eggs. O how wonderful was the feeling of running through the un-mowed grass swooping up those luscious eggs. When I say luscious I am not talking about these small, confection-filled, cellophane-wrapped, eggs kids hunt today. I am referring to real boiled eggs, laid by Easter bunnies, boiled by mommas and colored by moms and kids. Sam & Ella were my wife's uncle and aunt not a disease you get from eating boiled eggs. There were many years when I did not find the gold or the silver egg, but all was not lost, because I always went home with a basket full of real boiled eggs. They were the best eggs ever because they were the spoils of victory. Prized possessions taken from the field of competition.

Then I grew up and realized, bunnies, chicks, eggs and even the word Easter had nothing to do with the celebration the adults were observing. Resurrection Sunday is the name of the real celebration and that celebration has its roots in the Passover feast. Jesus became the Passover lamb for all of us in his death, burial, and resurrection.

Our children and many from the community will gather for an Easter egg hunt at the church on Saturday before Resurrection Sunday. I hope fun will be had by all, but let's make sure our children understand the hunt is just for fun. We can, however, use an event like this to invite newcomers to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus with us on Resurrection Sunday.

We will have a special communion service Thursday evening during Holy Week, and we will be talking together about the significance of the Passover and Jesus' sacrifice on Calvary. This is our most special communion celebration of the year. Please make plans to attend Thursday night communion during Holy Week.

A THANK YOU letter from Yatsky's family

Dear Jenkins Church!

Today, when my family finally celebrates our American citizenship, I keep thinking of the New Testament passages from the book of Mathew 25:31-46:

31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit upon his glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered in his presence...

34 "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father...

35 For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home...

40 "And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these...you were doing it to me!'

Here in these verses I notice three key words – NATIONS (Jews vs. Gentiles), STRANGER, and ONE (of the least).

"We were STRANGERS and you invited us into your home." When Brother Larry was approached with the request to consider helping out a family from Russia, he was certain the members of the session meeting would say firm NO. The proposition was out of ordinary, expensive, and erratic. You were being sold a pig in a poke. We were aware that it was a challenging task for you, because you had to step out of your comfort zone and to accept a burden and a huge responsibility. In spite of the human rational, you were merciful and sensitive enough to follow the Lord's calling and opened the doors of your church with servant heart. I am sure that if any of you carefully observed our behavior, habits, or mentality for the last eight years, you might have probably found a lot of strange and foreign elements to your understanding. Yet, you, members of JCPC proved that Jesus' love does not have borders and prejudices, and one day all the NATIONS will be gathered in His presence regardless of their color, shape, place of birth, or political stances.

In post 9/11 eras, one finds herself/himself wanting to shy of anything or anybody strange. If you watched a television, read a news article, or looked around, you surely have noticed a great number of people, good people, in need. One family seems not that important in a world of need. Yet, you chose to help ONE concrete family. It is not just a single family, it is "the least significant" such family. The family had last name Yatsky!

THANK YOU, DEAR JCP Church! You gave a new life to us, least deserving. You gave a chance to live and enjoy the right to pursue our happiness! Thank you for your commitment, love, hard work, and faith in us! Thank you for standing by our side in our scariest and happiest moments of our life! Thank you for your understanding and your friendship. Thank you for letting us serve you, the people of God.

You, the members of Jenkins Cumberland Presbyterian Church (JCPC), fulfilled our Father's teaching by accepting, embracing and surrounding us with unconditional love. We believe that these Jesus' words can be fully addressed to you: "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your Master's happiness."

I was twelve when I first felt strong conviction to leave for the United States. It took fifteen years, tens of thousands dollars, and a profoundly committed brothers and sisters in Christ to help me and my family to come over, survive and be able to pursue our happiness in the land of opportunity. We acknowledge that it would have been impossible to complete our long journey and become US citizens without EACH OF YOU who supported us with your time, commitment, finances, prayers, and strong love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Yaroslav Yatsky on behalf of Yatsky's family:
