2015 GIFT TO THE KING OFFERING

If you missed this offering last week there are envelopes on the tables in the back of the sanctuary for you to use or make a memo on your check. Thank You.

The Gift to the King Offering is going to help the Amaga Cumberland Presbyterian church with their first worship center. This is one of the newest CP churches in the family of CP churches located in Medellin, Colombia. The Amaga Church received a Builders Fellowship Call in 2014. That was a great blessing, but the amount given did not meet the needs. The Gift to the King Offering will continue what Builders Fellowship has started. The Amaga Church is currently in a rented building close to the center of the city Amaga. The rented space was a woodwork shop prior to being rented by the church. The congregation has used lots of creativity to turn the current rented space into a worship center. Now it is time to use the Gift to King Offering, in addition to Builders Fellowship, to purchase a place of their own that can be an appropriate worship center. Thank you for your offering and may God richly bless you during Advent.
