SACRAMENT OF COMMUNION

*Song of Worship Blest Be the Tie that Binds No. 286

*APOSTLES' CREED

*BENEDICTION

If you often worship at Jenkins, today will be different. The order will not be the same and that will be good, for the resurrection sure was a different day as well! We pray that something in the newness allows another facet of God to brilliantly stand out, just as it did for all those on the first resurrection day.

If today is your first visit to Jenkins, or a return visit, we pray we offer a place where you can worship God on this glorious day. As you hear scripture, spoken word, sing, or listen to song, know you are welcome to worship as you choose. Thank you for joining us. Please, too, join us in communion. Christ's table at this church is open for all believers.

Today there will be some normal parts of worship (call to worship, prayers, and hymns). There will also be unique moments. We will read much of the Passion Story. We will hear traditional spirituals. There will be sermons in short sections. We want to immerse ourselves in word and song so that something of God is seen that we may never have seen before. That is the beauty of God. God is always being revealed to us.

Bless God with your mind, body, and spirit today. Pray that we are all changed, so that we may leave here practicing daily our love of God and all neighbors.

In peace,

Rev. Jason Mikel

A note from the pastor:

Thank you for worshipping at Jenkins Church. If you are a new worshipper here, know that our devotion to God focuses on Jesus' Great Commandment; Love God with everything you have, and love all neighbors as much as you love yourself. That is the essence of what it means to live in the Kingdom of God now which Jesus showed is real through his obedience to God's will. Please join us in worship of that kind of God, the one who shows us a whole new way of being. For information on Jenkins activities, please see the following pages.
