Sermon Scripture for the Week is Ephesians 2:3-6 and 11-16

³ All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. ⁴ But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us ⁵ even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶ and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

One in Christ

¹¹ So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called “the uncircumcision” by those who are called “the circumcision”—a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands— ¹² remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴ For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. ¹⁵ He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, ¹⁶ and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it.

A note from the pastor:

Thank you for worshipping at Jenkins Church. If you are a new worshiper here, know that our devotion to God focuses on Jesus' Great Commandment; Love God with everything you have, and love all neighbors as much as you love yourself. That is the essence of what it means to live in the Kingdom of God now which Jesus showed is real through his obedience to God's will. Please join us in worship of that kind of God, the one who shows us a whole new way of being. For information on Jenkins activities, please see the following pages.

Jenkins Church would like to help with this upcoming event and raise money for the Nolensville Food Pantry.

How Can You Be a Volunteer?

On Saturday, June 8th from 7 to 11 or 12 noon, volunteers will hand out water and give directions to the runners.

Please contact Julie Bomar at 615-218-1453 or juliebomar@gmail.com to volunteer or for more information. You may also sign up directly with the Food Pantry by contacting Debbie Noland at dnoland@insidepbc.com.

Hoggin' N Joggin' is a 2-person 8k (5 mile) relay eat-and-run event in historic Nolensville, TN that challenges your stamina and stomach! On race day enjoy a mini-meal from one of Nolensville's finest fares before you hit the streets to complete your feat. Finish in the top 3 to get race bling and prizes. All the proceeds benefit the Nolensville Food Pantry, which helps feed needy families all around the Nolensville area. What more can you ask for...eat some local AMAZING food and raise money for an AMAZING cause!
