The Ten Commandments

⁵ Moses convened all Israel, and said to them:

Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances that I am addressing to you today; you shall learn them and observe them diligently. ² The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb. ³ Not with our ancestors did the LORD make this covenant, but with us, who are all of us here alive today. ⁴ The LORD spoke with you face to face at the mountain, out of the fire. ⁵ (At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to declare to you the words of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

⁶ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; ⁷ you shall have no other gods before me.

A note from the pastor:

Thank you for worshipping at Jenkins Church. If you are a new worshiper here, know that our devotion to God focuses on Jesus' Great Commandment; Love God with everything you have, and love all neighbors as much as you love yourself. That is the essence of what it means to live in the Kingdom of God now which Jesus showed is real through his obedience to God's will. Please join us in worship of that kind of God, the one who shows us a whole new way of being. For information on Jenkins activities, please see the following pages.

The background of the text area is decorated with a delicate, black line-art illustration of a vine. The vine winds upwards and to the right, adorned with various autumn leaves in shades of red, orange, and yellow. Small clusters of red berries are scattered along the vine. The overall style is elegant and seasonal.

This is the Day
that the Lord has made,
let us Rejoice
and be glad in it.

Psalm 118:24
