COOKOUT TODAY!

Burgers and Hotdogs After Church

Come join us after church as Jenkins celebrates 41 years as a community of faith. From our beginnings in the old school, to the gym, and finally our sanctuary, Jenkins is a part of the fabric of Nolensville. We've worshiped God, served our community individually as a church, and pursued God's will for our lives. We thank God for the church and share a meal today in prayerful hope that we have as great of success for the Kingdom in the next 41 years. Thanks to Steve Allemore for his work to make today happen. Let's praise God at our meal today!

IT'S TIME TO GET YOUR BIDS IN

Quilt Auction: Sunday August 8 through Sunday September 5.

The Jenkins Quilting Group is auctioning off a queen-size Hexi quit in a blind and anonymous auction. Bidders' names will be hidden and the high bid posted each Sunday. To place a bid in person, fill out a bid card and put it in the box by the quit in the church lobby. To place a bid remotely email juliebomar@gmail.com with your name, phone number, and bid amount. The bidding cutoff will be at 12 noon Sunday, September 5, and the winning bid will be announced at the potluck following worship. Proceeds will benefit the ministries of Jenkins Church.
