JOB SERMON SERIES STARTS TODAY

Today we start a sermon series Job: The Humanity of Pain.

Though the problem of pain has not been figured out in all of humanity's history, we will recognize how pain is a real human experience, lived in lives of the community, and how God offers hope to all people.

I hope you make plans to join us as we learn to understand God, even amid pain, so that we may worship God, be healed, and aid in God's healing of others.

This is the church's call.

To fully appreciate Job's discussion of pain and redemption, please read along as we venture through Job. Read two chapters a day and you'll have it read in 3 weeks.

What a valuable way to nurture our hope in God's promised redemption.

FISH FRY WRAP-UP

Thanks to everyone who participated in the Fish Fry two Saturdays ago. It was a fantastic success. We served our guests from 4:00 to 6:30 nonstop! The fundraiser brought in over $1800 to support ministries of the church.

The community loved it, too. We heard many compliments and encouraging words from neighbors. Thank you for providing a meal to our town in a fun and safe way.

Special thanks again to all those who fish year-round to provide for the event.

You all are the best!
