MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM THE PREACHER

I pray God blesses you by feeling the Divine presence this week.

May your celebrations be joyous, as well as your memories of years before.

I offer a couple of poems I found as a small gift to a congregation who has blessed me with the best pastorate I ever prayed to find. Thank you, and Merry Christmas.

Called to a destiny more momentous than any in all of Time,
she did not quail,
only asked a simple, 'How can this be?'

- Denise Levertov

One shining star to make the world bright,
One infant child on that holy night,
One humble manger, one guiding light,
These are the gifts of Christmas.

For those we love who now are at rest,
They join the song with the heavenly blessed.
Their joy unites with angelic zest,
In the eternal Christmas.

CHRISTMAS EVE COMMUNION

Tuesday, December 24th @ 5:00 PM

This Christmas Eve, we will have a short worship service followed by communion with family and friends at the altar.

This service is a quiet reminder that we serve a King.
He was born once 2000 years ago, a day we celebrate.
He still lives by the Spirit of God among us, a blessing for which we're thankful.
He will return again, a hope to which we cling.

Let's gather Christmas Eve in anticipation and share in the Lord's Supper together.
