LOAVES AND FISHES DENOMINATIONAL OFFERING

Loaves & Fishes is our annual offering for those in need. Yet, it is more than just an offering. It's a sacred opportunity, for us and for the world, to witness the glory of our God, who brings abundance into barren places.

Throughout Scripture, God is revealed as the provider when all seems lost.

God pours out water in deserts and rains down bread in the wilderness.

When the crowd was hungry and the supplies appeared lacking, Jesus multiplied what little was offered into a feast where everyone ate and was satisfied.

This year, our Loaves & Fishes Offering invites us to participate in that same story of divine provision through the work of our missionaries, Rev. Daniel and Kay Jang.

The funds raised will support our Cumberland Presbyterian Hot Lunch ministry in Iloilo City, Philippines, where children living in economic poverty receive hot lunches, educational support, and the nourishment of Christian discipleship.

Through this ministry, they are encountering a God who sees them, feeds them, speaks to them, and loves them.

Remember that your generosity is more than a donation.

It's participation in the divine pattern of redemption:

scarcity turned into sufficiency, brokenness into beauty, hunger into joy. May this offering help us all to see with fresh eyes the glory of the God who brings abundance in barren places.

Boxes can be found in the lobby and should be returned by November 30th.

JOIN THE CHURCH SUNDAY!

Have you considered a commitment to church membership?

On Christ the King Sunday, November 23, we ask all those interested in furthering their participation in the church by speaking with Bro. Jason about joining the congregation's rolls.

Is it necessary to be a member? Of course not. It is simply an official statement of purpose in your Christian Walk, which we embrace. If you do, please join us.
